The 2010/2011 Program

Leadership 2010/2011 is a nine-month program that gives participants valuable information on the inner-workings of the greater Idaho Falls community.

Sponsored by the Greater Idaho Falls Chamber of Commerce, the program meets the first Wednesday of the month and provides a forum for participants to enjoy the following activities:

- Site visits from “behind the scenes” perspectives on key businesses and programs.
- Networking with community leaders and business people.
- Interaction with community experts on a one-on-one basis.
- Planning, overseeing and securing speakers for sessions of the program.
- Working in teamwork structures to research and present community issues to other participant groups.
