

Professional Education Conference

Sponsored by the Bonneville Interagency Council (BIC)

CONFERENCE AGENDA

- 8:30—9:00 am REGISTRATION
- 9:00—10:00 am COMPASSION FATIGUE
Staci Jensen-Hart, MSW, ACSW, LCSW
Assistant Professor, Idaho State University
Good, caring, empathic helping professionals face the risk of developing compassion fatigue. This presentation will focus on raising awareness and increasing our repertoire of healthy, playful practices to reduce risk.
- 10:00—11:00 am RECENT IDAHO LABOR TRENDS
Will Jenson
Regional Economist, Idaho Dept. of Labor
Mr. Jenson will talk about how the recession has changed the labor market, focusing on the current economic trends and how they compare to previous economic downturns, how the changing education levels of the labor supply, and how unemployment is effected by education levels.
- 11:00 am-12:00 pm CULTURAL DIVERSITY
Gary Shenton, MSW
Professor, BYU-Idaho
- 12:00—1:30 pm Lunch—On Your Own
- 1:30—2:30 pm ETHICS
Paul Roberts, MSW
Professor, BYU-Idaho
- 2:30—3:30 pm THE STATE OF PSR SERVICES
Grover Wray, MSW—Professor, BYU-Idaho
In light of Medicaid regulations, Mr. Wray will touch on PSR concerns, future outlooks, and the services PSR is able to provide the community now versus what they can provide in the future.

CONFERENCE DATE

Friday,
February 25, 2011

8:30 am—3:30 pm

REGISTRATION FEE

BIC Members: FREE

Non-BIC Members:
$50 per person

Sign up as a BIC member by 2/25/11 and attend the conference for FREE. Annual BIC membership is $25.

CONFERENCE LOCATION

Eastern Idaho Public Health District
1250 Hollipark Drive
Idaho Falls, Idaho

WHAT IS BIC?

The Bonneville Interagency Council (BIC) is a professional organization which prevents duplication of community services and enhances interagency cooperation.

Monthly meetings held at noon on the third Friday of each month (except July, August, or December) at Godfather's Pizza in Idaho Falls.

Five (5) CEUs Available.

Pre-registration is required. Space is limited.