Chiropractors Host Back to School Supply Drive

IDAHO FALLS, ID – Back to school shopping is in full swing and local chiropractors at Spine Align Chiropractic are inviting the community to add a few extra items to their lists to help out area schools.

Who: Dr. Todd L. Reese and Dr. Devin P. Scoresby of Spine Align Chiropractic.

What: The clinic's Back to School Supply Drive starts August 1st and offers residents a chance to donate various school supply items in exchange for a free initial exam at the clinic.

Where: A list of donations is available on the clinic's website www.spinealignchiropractic.com and items can be delivered to the clinic during regular business hours at 1491 Curlew Dr. in Idaho Falls, ID.

When: August 1st – August 31st, 2011.

Why: "We thought the school supply drive would be a good way to help out families in the area who might be struggling right now," said Dr. Reese.

"We want to be an active part of the community and give back where we can," said Dr. Scoresby.

Spine Align Chiropractic Center emphasizes improving patient health by focusing on posture correction and proper spinal alignment. As experienced chiropractors, Dr. Reese and Dr. Scoresby are committed to promoting the optimal health and well-being of their patients using the latest techniques and methods.
