

The CITY CLUB of Idaho Falls

Invites you to a presentation by ...

Dan Popkey

Political Columnist for the Idaho Statesman

25 Years of Idaho Politics: What's happening now and what's changed?

Friday, January 20, 2012

12-12:30 Lunch is served

12:30-1:00 Presentation

1-1:30 Question and answer

Lunch is $14 for members and $16 for nonmembers. Gallery seating is $5. Reservations or advanced payment are required for lunch service. RSVP by Noon on Tuesday, January 17. To pay by credit card, visit cityclub.com, or send checks payable to Idaho Falls City Club to 450 B Street, Idaho Falls, ID 83402.

Idaho State University – Idaho Falls

Bennion Student Union

Multipurpose Room

University Place

1784 Science Center Drive

Idaho Falls

Forums are recorded for broadcast on KISU-FM 91.3. Visit www.kisufm.com for times.

The City Club of Idaho Falls is an independent, nonpartisan forum for discussion of public affairs. Visit our site at cityclub.com. For questions e-mail info@cityclub.com or call 523-7961.

- Came to Idaho to work at The Idaho Statesman. He covered Boise City life during the Mayor Dick Knechtman's first year in office, state government, politics and the Idaho Legislature.

- In 1994, he became a political columnist. He has covered 21 sessions of the Legislature as a reporter or columnist.

- Won a job in the U.S. House of Representatives, and graduated from Capitol Page High School in Washington, DC.

- Won the Idaho Records Preservation Award for his coverage of the efforts to secure public access to Gov. Dick Knechtman's official papers.

- Led the Statesman's coverage of the Sen. Larry Craig scandal. The Statesman's reporting was recognized as one of three best in the nation from a leading news.

- Won the Top 50 Year-First Achievement award for his coverage of University Place, the University of Idaho's troubled new credit development in Boise.

