YPN Professional Development Lecture Series With Tom Luna

The Greater Idaho Falls Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals Network is pleased to announce our upcoming event for our highly anticipated Professional Development Lecture Series. The Lecture Series Events will be hosted throughout the year by the Young Professionals Network Professional Development Committee. These events are specifically geared towards developing professionally and presenting the opportunity to participate in exclusive lecture and learning events featuring distinguished and acclaimed regional and national business leaders as speakers for professional development of all business professionals. In addition to having the opportunity to hear prestigious leaders speak on topics related to all aspects of business, participants also have the ability to participate in question and answer sessions from these highly achieved and successful individuals. This year's final event for 2011 will take place on Wednesday, November 1, 2011 at the Willard Arts Center in Downtown Idaho Falls from 8:00 am – 9:00 am. Admission is free to the public. Light breakfast will be provided.

The Young Professionals Network is honored and privileged to welcome Tom Luna, Idaho Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be addressing the YPN at this exciting professional development event. The YPN is also pleased to partner with F.I.S.H., Friends in Service Here, a local non-profit organization, donates school supplies to needy families in Districts 91 and 93, for a school supplies drive. F.I.S.H. volunteers will be at the event collecting 1 and 2 inch binders, TI-34 calculators, fabric pencil pouches, and college ruled filler paper. For more information please contact Kerry McCullough at 208-523-1010, check us out on Facebook, or at www.idahofallsypn.com for more information. The Greater Idaho Falls Young Professionals Network is proudly sponsored by Bank of Idaho, Teton Toyota, Premier Insurance, and Idaho Falls Magazine.
